Friday, April 9. 1708.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 10.

Vienna, March 28.

THE Emperour has lately sent to Count Sibert of Heister, Velt-Marshal-General, a Commission to command in Chief the Army in Hungary. The Queen of Great Britain and the States-General have by their Ministers propos'd to the Emperour to send 6000 Men more of his Troops from Italy to Catalonia, promising to keep a like Number on the Upper Rhine for the Service of his Imperial Majesty. We hear that the Elector Palatine has given out Commissions for the raising 3 Regiments for his own Service, that is to say, one of Foot, one of Horse, and one of Dragoons. Last Week there came Advice from Transylvania, that a Detachment of the Imperial Troops had defeated a Body of Malecontents, killing 400 of them, and driving them out of a Country, where they found a great Quantity of Provisions, which the Malecontents had laid up during the Winter. We had Advice at the same time, that General Rabutin having detach'd some Troops to lay Siege to the Castle of Gorgin which is very strong, and the only place in Transylvania that remain'd in the Hands of the Malecontents, they gave an Assault to it on the 19th of last Month, but were repuls'd with the loss of 50 Men kill'd and 100 wounded: Among the first was M. Kaltenblat Lieutenant Collonel of the Regiment of Ninbourg; however Collonel Henis, Commandant of Hermanstadt, continu'd the Siege with great Vigour, hoping to carry the Place in a short time; and accordingly we have since receiv'd Advice, that the Castle has been oblig'd to surrender at Discretion, insomuch that all Transylvania is now deliver'd out of the Hands of the Enemy; General Rabutin, who is coming from that Country, brings with him his own Regiment, and that of Montecuculi to recruit them here, that they may serve in Hungary. The Cardinal of Saxe-Zeyts, who return'd to Presbourg on the 24th, has sent Word to Court, that there is little likelihood of entering upon a Treaty of Peace with the Chiefs of the Malecontents, whose Parties commit unheard-of Cruelties almost wherever they come. The Emperour has given his Consent that Cardinal Grimani should go and take Possession of the Viceroyalty of Naples, which King Charles III. has conferr'd upon him: And 'tis said that Count Caunitz, Auditor of the Rota, is to take care of the Affairs of his Imperial Majesty till some other Minister be nam'd in the Room of that Cardinal. We hear that Prince Ragotski designs to besiege Edenbourg, in Order to put an End to the Diet at Presbourg.

From the Amst. and Antw. Cour. April 12. and 13.

Vienna, March 28. On the 22d in the Evening the Emperour receiv'd an Express from Transylvania, that the strong Castle of Gorgin, after our Troops had twice in vain assaulted it with the Loss of a good Number of Soldiers and brave Officers was at length oblig'd to surrender at discretion, so that all Transylvania is now reduc'd to the Emperour's Obedience. Yesterday arriv'd an Express from Presbourg with Advice, that the Castle of Caposwar, after it had sustain'd a Siege of 11 Days, was forc'd to surrender upon Articles, and that the Garrison, according to the Capitulation, was conducted to Raab, with their Arms and Baggage. After this Expedition the Malecontents march'd with their Troops towards Scharwar, otherwise call'd Rorhentur, which 'twas fear'd they would besiege, that they might be intirely Masters of the River of Raab. We have this Day Advice that the Hungarians having surpriz'd the Imperial Regiment of Horse of Virmont, had kill'd most of the Men. Last Night some of their Parties advanc'd near to Laxembourg and Hymperbegh, committing great Cruelties, cutting off the Legs and Arms of several Persons, and Quartering them alive: They threaten to burn our Frontier Towns and exact Contributions within a League of this City, insomuch that all the Country People fly hither with their Cattle and best Effects. The Emperour has given Orders to guard the Lines about this City with 3000 Soldiers, and a like Number of Arm'd Burghers, which will be done to Morrow. General Heister is gone in all haste to Presbourg, to draw our Forces together in Hungary, by which means we hope to frustrate the Designs of the Malecontents, who will not listen to a Peace, but threaten to besiege Presbourg. We are credibly inform'd that the French use their utmost Endeavours to incline Prince Ragotski to continue the War against the Emperour, M. Bonack, the French Ambassador in Poland, having to that End, lately sent him great Sums, as well in ready Money, as in Bills of Exchange. The Diet in Hungary will in all Appearance break up till after the Campaign.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 13.

Vienna, March 24. This Day we receiv'd Letters from Peterwaradin, which say, that the Malecontents kept Great Waradin still block'd up, and that General Rabutin having advice that a Body of 3000 Malecontents was advanc'd to the Pass of Doitoz, with design to make an Incursion towards Hermanstadt, had detach'd Collonel Tzewenfeld with 800 Horse and Dragoons, who had fallen upon them at that Pass, and kill'd or taken Prisoners above a third part of them: The Loss on our side amounted not to above 80 Men. The same Letters add, that after this Action the strong Fortrefs of Doitoz, that was Garrison'd with 300 Men of Ragotski's Troops, had surrender'd upon Articles to the said Collonel Tzewenfeld, and that there was found in the Place a sufficient Quantity of Provisions to subsist 10000 Men for three Months.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 13.

Francfort, April 8. All things are in perfect quiet on the Upper Rhine, the Troops on either side continuing still in their Winter-Quarters; but they are disposing all things for the opening of the Campaign: they are likewise storing the Magazines of the Frontier Places with all things necessary for their defence. The small Town of Gelhausen is still closely block'd up by three Companies of the Elector Palatin's Troops, and the Officer who commands them continues to insist that they should open the Gates to him, promising then to shew his Orders to the Magistrates and Burghers. The Emperour has granted to the Duke of Wolfenbuttel the Request he made to him, of erecting after his Death the County of Blankenberg into a Principality, in favour of his second Son, with the Privilege of having Place in the General Diet of the Empire. There is handed up and down here a Letter written from Breslaw, giving account of a great Action that has happen'd on the Frontiers of Lithuania between the Swedes and the Muscovites, in which the latter were intirely defeated with the loss of 15000 Men kill'd on the Spot, and a greater Number taken Prisoners; but this great piece of News wants confirmation, the rather because no Express is yet come to give notice of it.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 13.

Hambourg, April 3: Advice is come hither by the Way of Coningsberg, that the King of Sweden had fallen on the Muscovites 18 Leagues above Wilna, and intirely defeated them; but of this we expect the Confirmation.

Fort-Louis, March 28. Several more Boats and Pontons are brought hither from Strasburg, as 'tis said, to lay two Bridges over the Rhine. The Enemy continue to work on the new Lines of Erlingen, and have made two new Sluces near Werdt, by means whereof they will be able to drown the Country two Leagues round. The heavy Brass Cannon is bringing hither from Lauterbourg, and in their Room Iron Cannon are to be plac'd there.

Strasbourg, March 29. Two Days ago arriv'd here the rest of the Baggage of M. Villars, who came hither the same Morning from Brisac. On Monday next all the Cavalry that was Quarter'd in Alsatia, is to march out in order to Canton in the Villages. For some Days past they have begun to demolish the Fortifications of Haguenau. There is a talk too of razing Benheim and the Castle of Seltz.

Frankfort, April 9. We have Advice from the Upper Rhine, that the Imperial Generals were taking all the necessary Measures to go into the Field very early. According to our Letters from Hanover the Elector of that Name was to be at Philipsbourg the 18th or 20th of this Month at farthest: and had sent Expresses to Ratisbon and Vienna to desire the Diet of the Empire and the Imperial Court, that all the Troops that are to serve in the Army of the Empire, might be by that time at the general Rendezvous near Bruchsal.
